RE:	Sybrina Fulton interview	CASE NO.:
NARRATIVE

On 4/02/2012 3:20pm, Myself and Bernie de la Rionda went to Miami, Florida and talked with Sybrina Denise Fulton, B/F, DOB - 2/16/1966. She is the Victim's mother. Fulton advised that she is a Housing Coordinator for Miami/Dade County. She was asked concerning a button the Victim was wearing and she advised that the face on the button was a cousin of the Victim. The button was made in memory of the cousin, Core Johnson. Fulton last saw the Victim on the Tuesday before the incident. The Victim lived with her but was visiting Sanford. The Victim was in the 11th grade at Dr. Crop High School in Miami. The Victim's favorite subject was Math and he was interested in Aviation. The Victim wanted to go to college and was interested in going to F.A..M.U. or the University of Miami. The Victim was right handed.

Fulton was asked about Diamond, the girl who was talking to the Victim on the date of the incident. Fulton advised that she started hearing her name sometime around this past Christmas. Sometime in March 2012, Fulton talked with Diamond on the phone after learning she was the last person to talk with the Victim. Fulton talked with Diamond's mother and told the mother that Diamond needed to talk with the police. Diamond's mother wanted Diamond's identity kept private. Diamond agreed to come to Fulton's apartment. Diamond arrived with another unknown black female and may have been dropped off by someone. Fulton and Diamond went outside to talk. Diamond didn't talk about what the Victim had said. She was emotional and said she had gone to the hospital the night of the Victim's viewing. After talking with Diamond, Fulton took her home.

Fulton advised that the Victim did have a Facebook account. She didn't know of any Twitter account. The victim went by the nickname of "Slimm" or "Trey" on his Facebook. The Victim has a brother named Jahvaris Fulton. The Victim has tattoos on his arm of "praying hands". He has the name "NANA" who is his Great Grandmother and "CORA MAE" who is his Grandmother. He also has her name "SYBRINA" tattooed on his wrist. Fulton advised that she did hear the 911 call that had someone yelling for help. Fulton advised that the voice calling for help is the victim's voice.
